CITYLINE TO HOST PLANO MAGAZINE BITE NITE ON SEPT. 7

All 10 restaurants on State Street to offer plenty of bites, sips and tunes to fill the evening

RICHARDSON, Texas – (August 1, 2017) – CityLine will host the first Plano Magazine Bite Nite from 5 to 9 p.m. on Sept. 7. Guests will stroll from restaurant to restaurant along State Street, sampling the best cuisine and cocktails from ten different restaurants while enjoying live music in CityLine Plaza.

“State Street has become a bustling center of activity with so many great food and beverage options, right in the heart of CityLine,” said Jessica Robertson, marketing director, CityLine. “Bite Nite is a great way for guests to sample our variety of cuisine in a casual and fun setting.”

Tickets are available at planomagazine.com/bitenite for $29 per person and include two sample-size entrees and one drink (including a variety of cocktails, beer, wine and non-alcoholic drinks) from each restaurant. Participating restaurants include Coal Vines, Edoko Sushi & Robata, Fernando’s Mexican Cuisine, Good Union Urban BBQ, Jasper’s, Nestle Toll House Café, Red Mango, Tom+Chee, Top Pot Doughnuts, Tricky Fish, and the Aloft Hotel’s WXYZ Lounge.

Luke Shertzer, publisher of Plano Magazine, added, “As the Guide to the Good Stuff in Plano, we love helping to create fun events around town. And with CityLine sitting on the line between Plano and Richardson, it is the perfect playground for Plano residents.”

Upon arrival, guests should check in at the table in the CityLine Plaza and present ticket confirmation and a valid I.D. to receive their wristband, event program, and a take-home gift. Guests can enter to win a raffle at 9 p.m. and enjoy live music in the Plaza until 10 p.m.

CityLine will also host a rotating fall class series at several restaurants at CityLine. From learning to cook a signature dish, to creating the perfect hand-crafted cocktail, each class will teach unique skills in a fun group environment. Spaces are limited, so be sure to reserve spots early. The full class schedule and information on purchasing tickets can be found at citylinedfw.com/events.
