*CityLine will host a special series of live performances from noon to 9 p.m. on Oct. 21 in conjunction with Ricochet, the annual city-wide showcase of the arts presented by AIR (Arts Incubator of Richardson). Developed as a collaborative effort between AIR and many creatives and business partners, Ricochet is the basis for creating a “culture map” of the city while also raising awareness that October is National Arts & Humanities Month.

Guests can listen from one of the surrounding restaurant patios, including Fernando’s Mexican Cuisine, Good Union Urban BBQ, and Tricky Fish, and take advantage of happy hour specials. Or, grab dinner to go from one of the many restaurants on State Street, including Coal Vines, Edoko Sushi & Robata, Tom+Chee, Jasper’s and Nestle Toll House Cafe, for a picnic on the lawn. In the event of inclement weather, performances will be moved inside. For more information, visit citylinedfw.com or follow CityLine on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.
