For Immediate Release.

Dallas, TX. Dallas Moms & its extension site, Collin County Moms, announces its sixth annual Egg Hunt event happening March 28, 2020 from 10:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. at CityLine in Richardson, Texas. This event is for Dallas & Collin County families. The morning will focus on providing a safe, family-friendly environment for parents, grandparents, and caregivers to spend quality time with their children and grandchildren. This event will provide a few hours of arts, crafts, light snacks from CityLine retailers such as Chick-Fil-A CityLine and Piada Italian Street Food, educational resources from local preschools, pediatric dentists, and businesses such as CareNow, a balloon artist, face painter, and other themed activities with an appearance from the Easter Bunny. The featured activity will include 4 separate egg hunts separated by age to ensure a safe, stress-free environment for children.

Attendees will enjoy:

- Free parking.
- Complimentary food and drinks.

- More than 10 vendors.
- 4 Egg Hunts

TICKETS LAUNCH FEBRUARY 27, 2020 and can be purchased for $10 per person (guests under the age of 1 are complimentary) at <https://dallasmomsegghunt2020.eventbrite.com>.

Dallas Moms Egg Hunt food vendor, business vendor, and swag applications will be accepted through March 6, 2020.

Dallas Moms & Collin County Moms are available for appearances and interviews to serve as an expert on family-friendly ways to celebrate Easter and upcoming local egg hunts in the area.
